We ask to have our child baptized. We understand and accept the responsibility of training our child in the practice of Catholic Faith. We are fully aware of that it is our duty to bring our child up to keep God's commandments and to follow the teachings of the Church by what we say and do. We promise our readiness to renew the profession of faith of the Church and live that faith in our daily life. It is our unanimous and free will to baptize our child to the Catholic faith.
